

BYU-Idaho

BYU-Idaho is focused on building disciples of Jesus Christ and helping you achieve your potential. is a place to learn and grow in an uplifting environment.

Realize Your Potential

Become legendary in building others and adding value wherever you serve.

Student activities, sports, outdoor adventures, and more provide countless ways to have fun and make friends.

A Place Where You Belong

Be in an atmosphere with people who share your values.

Lifelong Spirituality & Leadership

BYU-Idaho's spiritual environment is characterized by a weekly campus-wide devotional, immersive student wards, a temple within walking distance, prayers in class, and numerous leadership opportunities.

A Spiritual Refuge

Build your testimony by being with other students and faculty who strive to live the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Weekly Devotional

Take a break from classes each week to be spiritually edified with the entire campus community.

Service and Leadership Opportunities

Follow Jesus Christ by leading and serving others on campus and in the community.

Education For Life

Elder Boyd K. Packer said, "We encourage our youth in every country to get an education. Even if at times it seems hopeless. With determination and faith in the Lord, you will be blessed with success. It is a dream well worth pursuing." ("To be Learned is GOod If.." Oct. 1992)

Elder Russell M. Nelson said in the October 1992 General Conference, "Our Creator expects His children everywhere to educate themselves. He issued a commandment: "Seek ye diligently and teach one another words of wisdom; yea, seek ye out of the best books words of wisdom; seek learning, even by study and also by faith." (D&C 88:118.) And He assures us that knowledge acquired here will be ours forever. (See D&C 130:18-19.)

God, for they set it aside, supposing they know of themselves, wherefore, their wisdom is foolishness and it profiteth them not. And they shall perish.

"But to be learned is good if they hearken unto the counsels of God." (2 Ne. 9:28-29.)

"With determination and faith in the Lord, you will be blessed with success."

Elder Boyd K. Packer

So my counsel then~and now~continue your education wherever you are, whatever your interest and opportunity, however you determine you can best serve your family and society.

Choose what you will learn and whose purposes you will serve. But don't place all your intellectual eggs in one basket of secular learning. Remember this warning from the Book of Mormon:

"O the vainness, and the frailties, and the foolishness of men! When they are learned they think they are wise, and they hearken not unto the counsel of

